

DANIEL WELTLINGER TRIO EPK

Of French-Hungarian-Israeli family background, Sydney-born Daniel Weltlinger is one of the world's great violinists and composers, and is highly acclaimed for his distinctive sound and improvisational approach in the genres of Gypsy-Swing, Klezmer and Experimental/Free-improvised music. One of the founding members of the legendary Gypsy-Cabaret band 'Monsieur Camembert', as well as a long-time co-performer with German-Gypsy guitarist Lulo Reinhardt, Daniel frequently collaborates as a solo recording/performance artist with some of Australia's top musicians in a variety of different formats and is highly sought after both nationally and internationally for his technical and musical mastery on his main instrument.

Daniel's trio - comprising of violin, acoustic/electric guitar and double bass - perform a gorgeous mix of Gypsy-Swing, South American, French and Jewish melodies and are guaranteed to bring the house down. As seasoned and well-travelled performers within the Australian and worldwide festival/concert circuit their collective experiences has included work alongside some of the most respected national and international artists in the music industry spanning the full gamut from rock to classical to jazz giving this trio a huge stylistic flexibility and unique contemporary edge that rarely fails to impress.

Available for events large and small, from festivals to private functions.

Drums, vocals or accordion can be added to the lineup on request.

Contact: Daniel Weltlinger

+61 418 654 884

danielweltlinger@gmail.com

<http://www.danielweltlinger.com>

<http://www.dwtrio.com.au>